and anr. ...Respondents.

Mr. A.M. Saraogi for the applicant.

Mr. S. Gajre, APP for the State.

CORAM: V.M. KANADE, J.

DATE: 23rd January, 2006

P.C.:

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the applicant and the learned APP for the State.

2. The applicant was arrested in connection with the offence which was registered vide C.R. No. 219 of 2005 for the offence punishable under section 365 read with section 120(b) of the Indian Penal Code. It is alleged in the complaint that the daughter of the complainant was missing from the house from 1/12/2005. Thereafter, investigation was made and seven people were arrested and the statement of the victim girl was recorded. It is alleged that the victim girl was lured by the accused No.1 and was taken to the room of present applicant No.1 and, thereafter, she was taken to Banglore where she was kidnapped and kept in the custody of the original accused.

3. Considering the statements of the witnesses, it appears that the applicant had no role to play in kidnapping of the victim girl save and except the fact that she was kept in her room and from there she was taken to Banglore. In this view of the matter, the applicant be released on bail in the sum of Rs 5000/- with one or to sureties in the like amount in connection with her arrest in the complaint which is registered with the Kalachowki Police Station vide C.R. No. 219 of 2005 for the offence punishable under section 365 read with section 120(b) of the Indian Penal Code. The applicant shall report to the said Police Station once in a month.
